to Mulberry street, in this city, cry out for or solicit passengers, freight or baggage, for any hotel, inn, boarding house, restaurant, railroad ticket broker's office, or any other public place, or for any other trade, business or vocation whatever, or for the carriage of any person, freight or baggage, in any dray, wagon, cart, hack, carriage, hackney-carriage, omnibus, cab, or other vehicle; nor shall any person, at any place in this city, while engaged in any such business, cry out in a loud, unusual or boisterous manner, or use or utter any profane, obscene or boisterous language, or push, take hold of, jostle or otherwise annoy, vex, harass, disturb or interfere with any passenger or any other person.

SEC. 8. Any person, violating, failing, neglecting or refusing to comply with any provision, regulation or requirement of this chapter, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof before the City Recorder, shall, where no other penalty is provided, be fined not less than five dollars nor more than five hundred dollars.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

PUBLIC SAFETY.

SECTION 1. No person shall, in this city, ride or drive, or cause to be ridden or driven, any animal, in any street, avenue, highway, thoroughfare, or other public place, faster than a moderate gait, or shall ride or drive, or cause to be ridden or driven, any such animal or any vehicle thereto attached, in such a manner as to come in collision with or strike any other object or person, or shall leave any such animal standing in any street, avenue, alley or other public place, without being fastened or guarded so as to prevent its running away, or shall turn any such animal loose in any street, avenue, alley or other public place, or shall inhumanly, unnecessarily or cruelly beat, injure or otherwise abuse any dumb animal.

SEC. 2. In all cases where persons meet each other in vehicles in any street, avenue, alley or other public place, in this city, each person so meeting shall turn to the right of such street, avenue, alley or other public place, so as to enable such vehicles to pass each other without collision.

SEC. 3. No person shall, in this city, wear under his clothes or concealed about his person, any pistol or revolver, except by special permission from the Mayor; nor shall any person wear under his clothes, or concealed about his person, any slung-shot, cross knuckles, knuckles of lead, brass or other metal, or any bowie knife, razor, billy, dirk, dirk-knife or dagger, or any knife resembling a bowie knife, or any other dangerous or deadly weapon. Any person, violating any provision or requirement of this section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof before the City Recorder, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars: Provided, however, That this section shall not be so construed as to prevent any United States, State, County or City officer, or any member of the City government, from carrying such weapons as may be necessary in the proper discharge of his duties.

SEC. 4. No person shall, in or upon any street, avenue, alley, sidewalk, public square or public park, fly a kite, or engage in any sport or exercise likely to scare horses or embarrass, obstruct or interfere with the passage of vehicles or pedestrians.

SEC. 5. No person shall trundle, or cause to be trundled, any wheelbarrow or hand cart, in or upon any sidewalk.

SEC. 6. No person shall play at or participate in any game of ball, in or upon any street, avenue, sidewalk, alley, public square or public park.

SEC. 7. No person shall slide or coast upon any hand-sled or skates, or in any other manner, in or upon any street, avenue, alley, sidewalk, public square or public park.

SEC. 8. No person shall, in or upon any street, avenue, sidewalk, alley, public square or public park, carry, bear, support or place, or cause to be carried, borne, supported or placed, any banner, sign, transparency, frame work, device or emblem, intended or tending, or purporting to be used, as an advertisement or publication of any trade, profession or business, place of business, office, store or occupation whatever.

SEC. 9. No person shall blast, or cause to be blasted, any rock, without having the rock covered at the time of setting off the blast, and all sides of the orifice protected with good, sound plank or timber of sufficient length, width and thickness, and so placed as to effectually prevent fragments of rock from ascending into the air.

SEC. 10. No person shall discharge any gun, pistol or other fire arm, except upon his own premises, and there only in proper and necessary cases: Provided, That this section shall not be so construed as to prevent any United States, State, County or City officer from discharging any fire arm in the execution of his official duties.

SEC. 11. No person shall dig or cause to be dug, in, near or adjoining any street, avenue, sidewalk, alley or other public place, any Surplus. SEC. 260. The surplus money, if any, arising from any such sale, after deducting the amount of the loan, the interest then due on the same, and the expenses of the advertisement and sale, shall be paid over by the pawnbroker, loanbroker, or keeper of a loan office, to the person who would be entitled to redeem the pledge in case no such sale had taken place.

Regulations SEC. 261. No pawnbroker, loanbroker or keeper of a loan office shall make any loan on the separate or divided part or parts of any one article or thing, and which article or thing shall have been offered entire or collectively to him or her by way of pawn or pledge.

Ibid. SEC. 262. No pawnbroker, loanbroker, or keeper of a loan office, shall, under any pretense whatever, purchase or buy any second-hand furniture, metals or clothes, or any other article or thing whatever, offered to him or her as a pawn or pledge.

Penalties. SEC. 263. Every pawnbroker, loanbroker, or keeper of a loan office, who shall violate or neglect or refuse to comply with any or either of the provisions of sections of this article shall, for every such offense, forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars.

ARTICLE XXVII.

Carrying of Pistols.

Concealed weapons. SEC. 264. Every person, except judges of the federal, state and city courts, and officers of the general, state and municipal governments, authorized by law to make arrests, and persons to whom permits shall have been issued, as hereinafter provided, who shall have in his possession within the city of New York a pistol of any description concealed on his person, or not carried openly, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished, on conviction, by a fine not exceeding ten dollars, or, in default of payment of such fine, by imprisonment not exceeding ten days.

SEC. 265. Any person, except as provided in this article, who has occasion to carry a pistol for his protection, may apply to the officer in command at the station-house of the precinct where he resides, and such officer, if satisfied that the applicant is a proper and law-abiding person, shall give said person a recommendation to the superintendent of police, or the inspector in command at the central office in the absence of the superintendent, who shall issue a permit to the said person, allowing him to carry a pistol of any description. Any non-resident who does business in the city of New York, and has occasion to carry a pistol while in said city, must make application for permission to do so to the officer in command of the station-house of the police precinct in which he so does business, in the same manner as is required by residents of said city, and shall be subject to the same conditions and restrictions.

SEC. 266. If, at the time of the arrest, a pistol of any description shall be found concealed on the person of, or not carried openly by any one arrested, the officer making the arrest shall state such fact to the police magistrate before whom the prisoner is brought, and shall make a separate complaint against such prisoner for violation of the provisions of this article.

Revocation of permission to carry pistols.

SEC. 267. The commissioners of police of the police department of the city of New York are hereby authorized and empowered, for reasons appearing to be satisfactory to them, by a vote of a majority of a quorum of said commissioners on ayes and noes, to annul or revoke any permission given under this article. All persons to whom such permission shall be given are hereby declared to be individually responsible for their own acts, or the consequences that may arise from the use of pistols carried under the permission to be obtained as provided in this article.

ARTICLE XXVIII.

lawful for any driver of any vehicle herein mentioned, while waiting for employment at any place assigned for his vehicle, to stand waiting for employment at any other place, or to snap or flourish his whip, or to be away from his vehicle unless from necessity or on business, or to sit or stand about the doorsteps or platforms, or in front of any house, store or other building, to the annoyance of the occupants thereof.

1211. Any person who shall violate any clause or provision of any section of this article, or who shall neglect or fail to comply with any or either of the requirements thereof, shall, on conviction, excepting as is herein otherwise provided, pay a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, and shall forfeit his license.

ARTICLE XIII.

Coal.

1212. In the sale of coal, the hundred weight shall consist of one hundred pounds avoirdupois, and twenty such hundred weight shall constitute a ton.

1213. Any person or persons engaged in the business of selling coal in the city of Chicago, to be delivered in said city, shall deliver to the purchaser at the time of the delivery of the coal purchased, a certificate, signed by a city weigher, showing the weight of the coal so delivered, and the weight of the wagon or cart.

1214. Any person violating any of the provisions of this article, or who shall deliver to any purchaser a less quantity than two thousand pounds of coal for each ton purchased (or a proportionate amount for any part of a ton), or who shall practice any fraud or deceit in the sale or delivery of any coal purchased, to be delivered in said city as aforesaid, shall upon conviction be fined in a sum of not less than twenty dollars, nor more than fifty dollars, for each offense.

ARTICLE XIV.

Concealed Weapons.

1215. It shall be unlawful for any person within the limits of the city to carry or wear under his clothes, or concealed about his person, any pistol, colt or slung shot, cross knuckles, or knuckles of lead, brass or other metal, or bowie knife, dirk knife or dirk, razor or dagger, or any other dangerous or deadly weapon.

1216. Any such weapon or weapons duly adjudged by any police magistrate or justice of the peace of said city to have been worn or carried by any person, in violation of the first section of this article, shall be forfeited or confiscated to the said city of Chicago, and shall be so adjudged.

1217. Any policeman of the city of Chicago may within the limits of said city without a warrant arrest any person or persons whom such policeman may find in the act of carrying or wearing under their clothes or concealed about their persons, any pistol, or colt, or slung shot, or cross knuckles, or knuckles of lead, brass or other metal, or bowie knife, dirk knife, or dirk, or dagger, or any other dangerous or deadly weapon, and detain him, her or them in the city jail or armory until a summons or warrant can be procured on complaint made (under oath or affirmation) for the trial of such person or persons, and for the seizure and confiscation of such of the weapons above referred to as such person or persons may be found in the act of carrying or wearing under their clothes, or concealed about their persons.

1218. Upon complaint made, under oath or affirmation, to any magistrate or justice of the peace in said city, that any person has been guilty of violating any of the provisions of section 1215 of this article, a summons or warrant shall issue for the summoning or arrest of the offender or offenders, returnable forthwith; upon the return of such summons or warrant, such magistrate or justice shall proceed to the hearing and determination of the matter, and if it shall be adjudged that such person or persons has or have incurred any of the penalties fixed by this article, such magistrate or justice of the peace shall so adjudge, and order that the weapon or weapons, concerning the carrying or wearing of which such penalty shall have been incurred, shall be confiscated to the city of Chicago.

1219. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of section 1215 of this article shall pay a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than fifty dollars, or be imprisoned in the house of correction for a term not exceeding six months, or both, in the discretion of the magistrate or court before whom such conviction shall be had.

1220. The prohibitions of this article shall not apply to the officers or members of the police force of said city when on duty, nor to any officer of any court whose duty may be to serve warrants or to make arrests; nor to persons whose business or occupation may seem to require the carrying of weapons for their protection, and who shall have obtained from the mayor a license so to do, as hereinafter provided.

CITY OF CHICAGO.

1221. The mayor may grant to so many and such persons as he may think proper licenses to carry concealed weapons, and may revoke any and all of such licenses at his pleasure.

1222. Applications for such licenses shall be made to the mayor, and when granted, the person applying therefor shall pay to the city collector the sum of two dollars, and thereupon a license shall be issued by the city clerk, and signed by the mayor.

1223. Every such license shall state the name, age, occupation and residence of the person to whom it is granted, and shall expire on the thirtieth day of April next following.

ARTICLE XV.

Dogs.

1224. Hereafter, it shall not be lawful to permit any dog to go abroad loose, or at large, in any of the public streets, avenues, alleys, parks, or places within the corporate limits of the city of Chicago, under a penalty of five dollars for each offense, to be recovered against the owner, possessor, or person who knowingly harbored such dog within three days previous to the time of such dog being so found going abroad loose or at large. Nothing in this article shall prevent any such dog from going into any such street, avenue, alley, park, or other place, provided such dog shall wear a good and substantial wire or leathern muzzle, securely fastened and put on, so as to prevent him from biting.

1225. Every owner, possessor, or person who harbors or keeps any dog within the limits of the city, shall annually, and within thirty days after the first day of May in each year, pay to the city collector the sum of two dollars for every male dog, and the sum of five dollars for every female dog, and cause such dog to be registered in the office of the city clerk, in a book to be kept for that purpose; and also obtain from such clerk the metal tag hereinafter required to be furnished to said clerk by the city comptroller.

1226. The city comptroller shall provide, each and every year, such number of metal tags as may be necessary, of such size and shape as he shall deem expedient (the shape to be changed each year), having stamped thereon numbers indicating the year for which the tax is paid, and the letters C. D. T., and deliver the same to the city clerk; and it shall be the duty of the city clerk to deliver one of such metallic plates to the person so paying a tax upon any such dog.

Ball playing in streets, school grounds, etc., prohibited.

Section 21. The throwing, catching or batting of baseballs in any of the streets, alleys, public school grounds or other public grounds is hereby prohibited.

Leaving wells and cisterns open.

Section 22. The occupants of any lot, part of lot or parcel of land in the city of Milwaukee occupied for residence or business purposes, are hereby prohibited from leaving open and not securely guarded any cistern, well or other dangerous excavation on such lot; and every owner of any lot, part of lot or parcel of land in said city, not occupied for residence or business purposes, is hereby in like manner prohibited from leaving open and not securely guarded any well, cistern or other dangerous excavation on such lot, part of lot or parcel of land; and every such occupant or owner who shall offend against the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than five nor more than fifty dollars for each offense.

Injuring trees, grass plats, etc., in public parks.

Section 23. All persons are hereby prohibited from breaking or otherwise injuring any tree, shrub or plant, breaking, soiling or defacing any fountain, statue or other ornamental structure; treading, walking or riding upon any grass plat, or in any way injuring, soiling or defacing any public property in any public park, square, sidewalk or ground in the city of Milwaukee, whether the same shall be owned or held in trust by said city, or held in trust for the use of any ward of said city; any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than five nor more than fifty dollars.

Leasing buildings for prostitution.

Section 24. All persons are hereby prohibited from leasing or letting, either as landlord or agent of the landlord, tenant or agent of the tenant, or as landlord through any agent or sub-agent, any house, room or other premises in the city of Milwaukee, to be used for the purpose of prostitution or lewdness; any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars.

Carrying dangerous weapons—
Permit. Fee.
Penalty.

Section 25. It shall be unlawful for any person except policemen, regular or special, or any officer authorized to serve process, to carry or wear concealed about his person, any pistol or colt, slung-shot, cross-knuckles.

knuckles of lead, brass or other metal, or bowie-knife, dirk knife, or dirk or dagger, or any other dangerous or deadly weapon, within the limits of the city of Milwaukee; provided, however, that the chief of police of said city may upon any written application to him made, issue and give a written permit to any person residing within the city of Milwaukee, to carry within the said city a pistol or revolver when it is made to appear to said chief of police that it is necessary for the personal safety of such person or for the safety of his property or of the property with which he may be entrusted, to carry such weapon; and the holding of such permit by such person shall be a bar to prosecution under this ordinance. Said chief of police shall keep the names and residences of all persons to whom he may grant such permits, in a book to be kept for that purpose, and he shall have power to revoke such permit at any time.

Said chief of police shall, upon granting each and every such permit, collect from the person to whom the same is granted, the sum of three (3) dollars, and he shall pay all moneys so collected by him upon granting such permits, into the city treasury.

Any person who shall wear or carry any such pistol, slung-shot, cross-knuckles, knuckles of brass, lead or other metal, knife, dirk or dagger, or any other dangerous or deadly weapon, within the limits of the city of Milwaukee, contrary to the provisions of this chapter, shall be liable to a penalty of not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars for each and every offense.

Section 26. All employes of the Gaslight company of the city of Milwaukee, under the superintendent of the said company, are hereby required upon all occasions when inspecting the meters of said Gaslight company in any dwelling house or other building in the city of Milwaukee, to wear badges or stars in a conspicuous place on the breast, which badges or stars shall be provided to said employes by said Milwaukee Gaslight company, and shall be subject to the approval of the city clerk of the city of Milwaukee.

Employes of Gas
Company to wear
badge.

Section 27. It shall be a misdemeanor for any such employe of the said Milwaukee Gaslight company, or any other person, to inspect or attempt to inspect or take away any gas meter of said company from any dwelling house

Not to inspect

531. It shall be unlawful for any person within the limits of the city of Evanston to carry or wear under his clothes or concealed about his person, any pistol, colt or slung shot, cross knucklet, or knuckles of lead, brass or other metal, or bowie knife, dirk, dagger, or any other dangerous or deadly weapon.

532. Any such weapon or weapons duly adjudged by any police magistrate, or justice of the peace, to have been worn or carried by any person, in violation of section 531 shall be forfeited or confiscated to the said city of Evanston, and shall be so adjudged.

533. Any policeman of the city of Evanston may, within the limits of said village, without a warrant, arrest any person or persons whom he may find in the act of carrying or wearing concealed about his or their persons, under their clothes, any weapon specified in section 531, until a summons or warrant can be procured on complaint made (under oath or affirmation) for the trial of such person or persons, and for the seizure and confiscation of such weapons.

534. Upon complaint made, under oath or affirmation, to any magistrate or justice of the peace in said city, that any person has been guilty of violating any of the provisions of section 531, a summons or warrant shall issue for the summoning or arrest of the offender or offenders returnable forthwith; upon the return of such summons or warrant, such magistrate or justice shall proceed to the hearing and determination of the matter, and if it shall be adjudged that such person or persons has or have incurred any of the penalties fixed by this chapter, such magistrate or justice of the peace shall so adjudge and order that the weapon or weapons, concerning the wearing or carrying of which such penalty shall have been incurred, shall be confiscated to the city of Evanston.

535. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this chapter shall pay a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, in the discretion of the magistrate or court before whom such conviction shall be had.

536. The prohibitions of this chapter shall not apply to the officers or members of the police force of said city when on duty, nor to any officer of any court whose duty it may be to serve warrants or to make arrests; nor to persons whose business or occupation may seem to require the carrying of weapons for their protection, and who shall have obtained from the mayor a license so to do, as hereinafter provided.

537. The Mayor may grant to so many and such persons as he may think proper, licenses to carry concealed weapons, and may revoke any and all of such licenses at his pleasure.

538. Applications for such licenses shall be made to the city clerk, and when granted, the applicant therefor shall pay to the said clerk, for the use of the city, the sum of two dollars.

539. Every such license shall state the name, age and occupation and residence of the person to whom it is granted.

Section 4. This ordinance shall take effect immediately upon its approval.

(Approved May 15, 1890. Vol. 3, p. 438.)

ORDINANCE No. 1141.

AN ORDINANCE TO PROHIBIT THE CARRYING OF CONCEALED WEAPONS.

Be it Ordained by the Council of the City of Oakland as follows:

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person in the City of Oakland, not being a public officer or a traveler actually engaged in making a journey, to wear or carry concealed about his person without a permit, as hereinafter provided, any pistol, slung-shot, brass or iron knuckles, sand club, dirk or bowie knife, or iron bar or other dangerous or deadly weapon, or any sling or other contrivance by which shot or other missiles are or may be hurled or projected. A written permit may be granted by the Mayor for a period of not to exceed one year to any peaceable person whose profession or occupation may require him to be out at late hours of the night to carry a concealed deadly weapon upon his person.

Section 2. Every person violating any provision of this ordinance is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not to exceed one hundred dollars; and in case such fine be not paid, then by imprisonment at the rate of one day for every two dollars of the fine so imposed.

Section 3. An ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to Prohibit the Carrying of Concealed Weapons in the City of Oakland," approved November 10, 1875, and also Section 1 of an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance Prohibiting the Carrying of Pistols and Sling-shots," approved May 4, 1881, are hereby repealed.

Section 4. This ordinance shall take effect immediately upon its approval.

AN ORDINANCE regulating the carrying of concealed weapons in the city of Lincoln, prohibiting the carrying of the same save under certain conditions, prescribing penalties for violation of the provisions of this ordinance, and repealing ordinances in conflict herewith.

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Council of the City of Lincoln:

ARTICLE XVI.

Concealed Weapons.

782. § 1. It shall be unlawful for any person within said city to carry about the person any concealed pistol, revolver, dirk, bowie knife, billy, sling-shot, metal knuckles, or other dangerous or deadly weapons of any kind, excepting only officers of the law in the discharge of their duties; and any person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be subject to the penalty hereinafter provided.

783. § 2. Any such weapon or weapons, duly adjudged by the Police Judge of said city to have been worn or carried by any person, in violation of the first section of this ordinance, shall be so forfeited or confiscated to the said city of Lincoln, and shall be so adjudged.

784. § 3. Any policeman of the city of Lincoln may within the limits of said city without warrant arrest any person or persons whom such policeman may find in the act of carrying or wearing under their clothes or concealed about their person, any pistol, or revolver, slung shot, or cross-knuckles, or knuckles of lead, brass or other metal, or bowie knife, dirk knife, or dirk, or dagger, or any other dangerous or deadly weapon, and detain him, her, or them, in the city jail until a warrant can be procured.

785. § 4. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of the first section of this ordinance, shall, upon conviction, pay a fine of not more than one hundred dollars, and be committed until such fine and costs are paid.

786. § 5. The prohibitions of this ordinance shall not apply to the officers or members of the police force of the city when on duty, nor to any officer of any court whose duty may be to serve warrants or to make arrests, nor to persons whose business or occupation may seem to require the carrying of weapons for their protection, and who shall have obtained from the Mayor a license so to do.

787. § 6. The Mayor may grant to so many and such persons as he may think proper, licenses to carry concealed weapons, and may revoke any and all of such licenses at his pleasure. Every such license shall state the name, age, occupation, and residence, of the person to whom granted, and shall be good for one year. A fee of fifty cents shall be paid therefor to the City Treasurer, and by him placed in the police fund.

ORDINANCE NO. 209.

An ordinance providing for the punishment of disorderly persons, and keepers and owners of disorderly houses.

Passed November 17, 1897.

Oregon City does ordain as follows:

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person to lie or sleep on any of the streets, highways, alleys, sidewalks, parks or other public places within the corporate limits of Oregon City, or to appear therein in such state of intoxication as to be unable to take proper care of himself or herself, or to disturb the peace and quiet of any person, family or neighborhood by drunkenness, or by making loud or unusual noises, or by violent or obscene, profane, insulting or offensive language, or by threatening, traducing, quarreling, fighting or offering or challenging to fight, or who shall assault any person, or in any other way or manner whatsoever disturb the peace, quiet and decency of any person or neighborhood.

Sec. 2. It shall be unlawful for any person to carry any sling shot, billy, dirk, pistol or any concealed deadly weapon or to discharge any firearms, air gun, sparrow gun, flipper or bean shooter within the corporate limits of the city, unless in self defense, in protection of property or an officer in the discharge of his duty; provided, however, permission may be granted by the mayor to any person to carry a pistol or revolver when upon proper representation it appears to him necessary or prudent to grant such permission.

Sec. 3. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to congregate at or upon any railway station or depot within the corporate limits of the city, and to loiter and remain about the same without lawful business.

Sec. 4. It shall be unlawful for any person, other than a railroad employe and his assistant, to climb or enter upon or to get on board of any portion of a railroad car or train at any place within the corporate limits of the city, except for passengers at the regular depot platform of such railroad company, or in any way to interfere with railroad cars or trains, or their operation within the limits of the city, excepting officers in discharge of their duties.

Sec. 5. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to keep a riotous or disorderly house, or permit any riotous or disorderly conduct, or to use or allow the use of any obscene or profane language in his house, yard or premises connected with his house, or to be guilty of any riotous or disorderly conduct in any house, yard or premises, whereby the peace, quiet or decency of the neighborhood of such house or of persons may be disturbed.

Sec. 6. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to build or assist in building bonfires within one hundred feet of any building within the corporate limits of the city.

Sec. 7. It shall be unlawful for any person to set up, open or cause to be opened, or keep any house as a resort for the purpose of smoking opium, or to sell or offer to sell any opium to any person for the purpose of smoking it within the corporate limits of Oregon City.

Sec. 8. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to bargain for, buy or sell, give or take, smoke or cause to be smoked any opium (except for medicinal purposes, and only then on a physician's prescription) within the corporate limits of Oregon City.

Sec. 9. It shall be unlawful for any minor to loiter or remain around, about or in any saloon, bar-room or other place where spirituous, vinous, malt or intoxicating liquors are sold or kept for sale by the glass, or to engage in any game of cards, billiards or other games in such saloon, barroom or other place.

Sec. 10. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before the recorder or mayor, shall be fined in any amount not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in any term not exceeding fifty days, or both fine or imprisonment.

OF THE

SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

FOR THE

FIRST SESSION OF THE FIFTY-SECOND CONGRESS.

1891-'92.

WASHINGTON:
GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE.

By the act to punish the carrying or selling of deadly or dangerous weapons within the District of Columbia, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons within the District of Columbia to have concealed about their person any deadly or dangerous weapons, such as daggers, air-guns, pistols, bowie-knives, dirk knives or dirks, blackjacks, razors, razor blades, sword canes, slung shot, brass or other metal knuckles.

SEC. 2. That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons within the District of Columbia to carry openly any such weapons as hereinbefore described with intent to unlawfully use the same, and any person or persons violating either of these sections shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall, for the first offense, forfeit and pay a fine or penalty of not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, of which one half shall be paid to any one giving information leading to such conviction, or be imprisoned in the jail of the District of Columbia not exceeding six months, or both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court: Provided, That the officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates of the United States Army, Navy, or Marine Corps, or of any regularly organized Militia Company, police officers, officers guarding prisoners, officials of the United States or the District of Columbia engaged in the execution of the laws for the protection of persons or property, when any of such persons are on duty, shall not be liable for carrying necessary arms for use in performance of their duty: Provided, further, that nothing contained in the first or second sections of this act shall be so construed as to prevent any person from keeping or carrying about his place of business, dwelling house, or premises any such dangerous or deadly weapons, or from carrying the same from place of purchase to his dwelling house or place of business or from his dwelling house or place of business to any place where repairing is done, to have the same repaired, and back again: Provided further, That nothing contained in the first or second sections of this act shall be so construed as to apply to any person who shall have been granted a written permit to carry such weapon or weapons by any judge of the police court of the District of Columbia, and authority is hereby given to any such judge to grant such permit for a period of not more than one month at any one time, upon satisfactory proof to him of the necessity for the granting thereof; and further, upon the filing with such judge of a bond, with sureties to be approved by said judge, by the applicant for such permit, conditioned to the United States in such penal sum as said judge shall require for the keeping of the peace, save in the case of necessary self-defense by such applicant during the continuance of said permit, which bond shall be put in suit by the United States for its benefit upon any breach of such condition.

SEC. 3. That for the second violation of the provisions of either of the preceding sections the person or persons offending shall be proceeded against by indictment in the supreme court of the District of Columbia, and upon conviction thereof shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary for not more than three years.

SEC. 4. That all such weapons as hereinbefore described which may be taken from any person offending against any of the provisions of this act shall, upon conviction of such person, be disposed of as may be ordered by the judge trying the case, and the record shall show any and all such orders relating thereto as a part of the judgment in the case.

SEC. 5. That any person or persons who shall, within the District of Columbia, sell, barter, hire, lend or give to any minor under the age of twenty-one years any such weapon as hereinbefore described shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, pay a fine or penalty of not less than twenty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the jail of the District of Columbia not more than three months. No person shall engage in or conduct the business of selling, bartering, hiring, lending, or giving any weapon or weapons of the kind hereinbefore named without having previously obtained from the Commissioners of the District of Columbia a special license authorizing the conduct of such business by such person, and the said Commissioners are hereby authorized to grant such license, without fee therefor, upon the filing with them by the applicant therefor of a bond with sureties to be by them approved, conditioned in such penal sum as they shall fix to the United States for the compliance by said applicant with all the provisions of this section; and upon any breach or breaches of said condition said bond shall be put in suit by said United States for its benefit, and said Commissioners may revoke said license. Any person engaging in said business without having previously obtained said special license shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, of which one half shall be paid to the informer, if any, whose information shall lead to the conviction of the person paying said fine. All persons whose business it is to sell barter, hire, lend or give any such weapon or weapons shall be and they hereby, are, required to keep a written register of the name and residence of every purchaser, barterer, hirer, borrower, or donee of any such weapon or weapons, which register shall be subject to the inspection of the major and superintendent of Metropolitan Police of the District of Columbia, and further to make a weekly report, under oath to said major and superintendent of all such sales, barterings, hirings, lendings, or gifts. And one half of every fine imposed under this section shall be paid to the informer, if any, whose information shall have led to the conviction of the person paying said fine. Any police officer failing to arrest any person guilty in his sight or presence and knowledge of any violation of any section of this act shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars.

SEC. 6. That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act be, and the same hereby are, repealed.

Approved, July 13, 1892.

By the act for the preservation of the public peace and the protection of property within the District of Columbia.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to destroy, injure, disfigure, cut, chip, break, deface, or cover, or rub with or otherwise place filth or excrement of any kind upon any property, public or private, in the District of Columbia, or any public or private building, statue, monument, office, dwelling, or structure of any kind, or which may be in course of erection, or the doors, windows, steps, railing, fencing, balconies, balustrades, stairs, porches, or halls, or the walls or sides, or the walls of any inclosure thereof; or to write, mark, or paint obscene or indecent words or language thereon, or to draw, paint, mark, or write obscene or indecent figures representing obscene or indecent objects; or to write, mark, draw, or paint any other word, sign, or figure thereon, without the consent of the owner or proprietor thereof, or, in case of public property, of the person having charge, custody, or control thereof, under a penalty of not more than fifty dollars for each and every such offense.

SEC. 2. That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to destroy, break, cut, disfigure, deface, burn, or otherwise injure any building materials, or materials intended for the improvement of any street, avenue, alley, foot pavement, roads, highways, or inclosure, whether public or private property, or remove the same (except in pursuance of law or by consent of the owner) from the place where the same may be collected for purposes of building or improvement as aforesaid; or to remove, cut, destroy, or injure any scaffolding, ladder, or other thing used in or about such building or improvement, under a penalty of not more than twenty-five dollars for each and every such offense.
